

Mina Phaisaltantiwongs

Mina is a dynamic leadership coach known for providing motivating and empowering coaching sessions that inspire powerful insights and creative solutions. She has been coaching since 2018 and is a certified Personal and Professional Development Coach with the International Coach Federation (ICF) and a Certified Professional Co-Active Coach (CPCAC).

Mina has worked with a variety of clients and has a proven track record of helping them transition from aimlessly floating through life to becoming confident and powerful leaders in both their personal and professional lives. Her coaching practice is built around kindness, compassion, non-judgment, and fun.

Whether it's coaching clients to become better leaders, clarifying career direction, starting a business, or navigating challenging life scenarios, Mina's mission is to help her clients meet their goals and become better versions of themselves. She radiates positivity and enthusiasm and takes great joy in helping others succeed.
